

GBI Member Peer Learning Meeting

Tuesday 24 – Thursday 26 April 2018

McLean, Virginia, USA

WEEK OVERVIEW

Tuesday 24 April 2018, 09:00 – 17:30

Welcome, introductions and orientation

Session one: Refreshing human rights policy: renewing commitments and strengthening foundations

Session two: Optimising internal governance frameworks for human rights

Session three: Developing effective training and capacity-building

- Part one – Experiencing members' training and capacity-building programmes
- Part two – Strategies and approaches to build awareness and capacity on human rights

GBI members' dinner with Andrew Gowers

Wednesday 25 April 2018, 08:45 – 16:30

Session four: New developments in relation to modern slavery and global supply chains

Session five: Responding to events, challenges and dilemmas – sexual harassment

Session six: Responding to events, challenges and dilemmas – climate change litigation

Session seven: Road-testing GBI's scenario-based linkage and leverage tool

Session eight: Rapid fire – GBI members' innovations in implementation

GBI creating value in 2018

Evening dialogue with Anita Ramasastry on corporate human rights due diligence

Thursday 26 April 2018, 09:45 – 14:00

Session eight: The evolving legal and regulatory landscape – what business lawyers (and their colleagues) need to know about human rights risk management

- Part one: Key legal and regulatory developments
- Part two: Lawyers as leaders – the critical role of in-house legal teams
- Part three: Building know-how and capacity

Networking lunch

